

TREATY OF MUTUAL RECOGNITION AND COOPERATION BETWEEN THE EMPIRE OF AUSTENASIA

AND

THE KINGDOM OF IKONIA

To all and singular to whom this Treaty may concern, the Governments of the Empire of Austenasia, as represented by His Imperial Majesty Emperor Jonathan I, and of the Kingdom of Ikonian, as represented by His Majesty King Cameron I, do extend our greetings;

Be it recognized that the following Articles of Agreement have been negotiated in good faith and without effort of evasion or duress by the Governments of the Empire of Austenasia and of the Kingdom of Ikonian, as represented by the afore-mentioned:

Article I. That there will be a perpetual state of friendship and cooperation between the Empire of Austenasia and the Kingdom of Ikonian, henceforth referred to as the signatory nations, who hereby recognise each other as sovereign states independent from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America, and any other state which may claim their land. Both parties are committed to a peaceful resolution of any and all issues that may occur to estrange and otherwise alienate them one from the other.

Article II. That both signatory nations shall freely share information relating to the development of state institutions and national symbols in a way that does not compromise the internal security and confidentiality of the respective governments.

Article III. That both signatory nations shall refrain from any aggressive, belligerent, hostile, deceitful or malicious act or policy, either overtly or covertly, directed against either the other or any allies of the other, and shall afford diplomatic immunity to the visiting ambassadors and diplomats of the other.

Article IV. That each of the signatory nations is pledged to the other to provide information of a hostile, deceitful or malicious nature or consequence directed at the other by any third party nation, person, or organisation.

Article V. That the signatory nations shall respect the diplomatic position and policies of the other, as regards to the recognition of, and relationship with, other nations.

Article VI. That each signatory nation shall respect the military and political endeavours of the other, insofar as such does not infringe upon their own military and political interests and/or sovereignty.

Article VII. That no formal bond of military support shall exist between the signatory nations hereto; however, in the event of international crisis, which may be declared by either signatory, both parties shall steadfastly support the other in any and all efforts to remain neutral.

Article VIII. That the currencies and postage of each nation shall be recognised and accepted as valued according to international exchange rates.

Article IX. That the signatory nations, both according official status to Christianity, shall support each other in any efforts to defend the Faith from doctrinal attacks and to promote its education.

Article X. That the Kingdom of Ikonian recognises that the Empire of Austenasia is, in accordance with its Constitution and laws, a continuation of the Christian Roman Empire, and its Monarch a legitimate Emperor of the Romans.

Article XI. That the signatory nations hereto are in agreement that this Treaty forms the foundation of their relationship with one another and may be amended, revised, superseded, enlarged and/or expanded upon the concurrence of both.

In witness thereof the following have hereunto set their respective hands, on this the twentieth day of August, in the year of the consulship of Hannah Augusta and Brenda Bargerii Nova Richmondiae Domina, during the imperium of Jonathan I, Quentin I, Naruhito and Adam I:
